OFFICIAL RULES

Money Motion X

1. You must be 18 years or older to participate. Sponsors and their families are not eligible. Contestants and any of their family members (related by marriage or otherwise) who aggregate $20,000.00 or more (or local currency equivalent) in lifetime winnings from Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., or its affiliates, including North American Award Center, at the time prizes are determined in this contest are not eligible to win. Prizes in this contest of skill are subject to all federal, state, and local regulations and taxes. We are not responsible for lost, stolen, or delayed mail. Void where prohibited.
2. Money Motion X is not a sweepstakes or lottery. It is a contest of skill involving no luck or chance. This contest consists of your initial entry plus Tiebreakers, requiring contestants to successfully use math skills. The Grand Prize is $15,000.00, plus there are five (5) runner-up prizes of $1,000.00 each. Cash prizes, excluding optional bonuses, total $20,000.00. The maximum cost to compete for the Grand Prize is $20 USD plus up to two Tiebreaker handling charges of $5 each (total $30 USD plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms). In some states, lower tiebreaker fees may apply. Any subsequent tiebreakers are free. Returned checks may be subject to electronic redeposit without further notice. Recovery fees as allowed by state law may be assessed and may be debited from your checking account. No additional fees are required. Fee discounts may be offered. International fees may be higher, depending on currency conversion rates.
3. Estimated Number of Contestants: Approximately 90,000 contestants are anticipated. 87% (78,300) are expected to correctly answer the Qualification Question and receive up to four successive Tiebreakers. We anticipate that about 15% of those entering (13,500) will return the correct solution to the Tiebreaker I, less than 1% (900) to the Tiebreaker II, and that the Tiebreaker III will determine winners. Sponsor reserves the right to determine the number of Tiebreakers, not to exceed four. The final Tiebreaker will be much more difficult. Photocopies and faxes will not be accepted for Tiebreaker and Bonus entries. If two or more winning entries are tied after the final Tiebreaker, prizes will be shared per capita by winners. Contestants may play multiple times to improve Tiebreaker scores. However, Sponsor reserves the right to limit the number of entries any individual contestant may submit. Winners will receive, in addition to their prize, double the amount of their original entry fees, including any bonus and tiebreaker fees, for each multiple winning entry submitted. One Grand Prize will be awarded, and could be shared with other contestants. Sponsor anticipates that less than 5% of entry fees will be distributed in prizes.
4. The Tiebreaker I is similar in concept to the original Money Motion X Contest Qualification Question, and it will utilize similar, slightly more challenging math skills. The Tiebreaker II will attempt to narrow the playing field to the top-scoring contestants. The Tiebreaker III (and any subsequent Tiebreaker that may be necessary) will be increasingly difficult and require greater math skills, in a much larger puzzle grid, with a difficulty level designed to determine the final winners. A correct solution at each stage will advance you to the next exciting round. Customers may request sample Tiebreakers at any stage in the competition before proceeding to the next stage.
5. Different versions of this offer may be tested and used, including fee and graphic presentations. Puzzle solutions found to be created in part or in whole by collusion, and/or solutions submitted by proxy or via fictitious identities will be disqualified. No entrants will be accepted for this contest after January 15, 2017; winners and prizes will be determined by July 15, 2017. There will be a 30-day rejudge period following the prize determination date, and winners will be paid within 60 days thereof. Entries received after January 15, 2017, will automatically be entered in a subsequent, similar contest. Scheduled Prize Pay date is October 13, 2017.
6. At three later points in the contest, you may be given up to three opportunities to compete for optional bonus cash prizes: on your first Tiebreaker, on a separate bonus mailing, and on your second Tiebreaker. These Bonus Cash Prizes will be added to the Grand Prize. Bonus Cash fees range from $10 to $45, depending on the additional bonus prize amount you may select. Maximum cost to play for the Grand Prize and all Bonus Cash Options advertised is $155 plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms. Fee discounts may apply. Payment of the bonus cash fees, and playing for bonus cash are optional, and will not affect your present opportunity to win or share a Grand Prize. Bonus Prizes are applicable only to the Grand Prize Winner. In the event of a tie for Bonus Prize Money, Bonus Cash will be divided per capita by those winners who have submitted winning bonus entries; only Bonus Participants will share in bonus prizes. In some countries including United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa, prizes and fees have been converted from US Dollars to local currency using the exchange rate calculated at the start date of the contest. Prizes may be awarded in US Dollars equivalent to the local currency prize amount advertised.
7. Liability for judging errors is limited to a complete refund of entry fees paid plus postage. If a contestant suspects a judging error, he or she must notify sponsor in writing within 30 days of the Prize determination date. No adjustments will be made after prizes have been paid. Winners are determined on the basis of correct and top-scoring answers to Tiebreakers. Most Tiebreakers are judged by computer programs; remaining Tiebreakers require manual judging. All winning Tiebreakers are hand-verified by qualified Judges who are employed by Sponsor, and who have been trained by Sponsor in computer judging programs and/or manual verification procedures. All payments to winners are lump sum cash payments. Submission of your entry constitutes acceptance of all contest rules. Decisions of the Judges are final. South Africa Residents warrant that in effecting payment of any competition participation fees, they have complied in all respects with the exchange control regulations.
8. A Winners List is available after contest prize award date by sending $1 and a self-addressed envelope to Money Motion X - Winners List, 1401 Armour Road, N. Kansas City, MO 64116 USA. OFFICIAL RULES

Money Motion X

1. You must be 18 years or older to participate. Sponsors and their families are not eligible. Contestants and any of their family members (related by marriage or otherwise) who aggregate $20,000.00 or more (or local currency equivalent) in lifetime winnings from Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., or its affiliates, including North American Award Center, at the time prizes are determined in this contest are not eligible to win. Prizes in this contest of skill are subject to all federal, state, and local regulations and taxes. We are not responsible for lost, stolen, or delayed mail. Void where prohibited.
2. Money Motion X is not a sweepstakes or lottery. It is a contest of skill involving no luck or chance. This contest consists of your initial entry plus Tiebreakers, requiring contestants to successfully use math skills. The Grand Prize is $15,000.00, plus there are five (5) runner-up prizes of $1,000.00 each. Cash prizes, excluding optional bonuses, total $20,000.00. The maximum cost to compete for the Grand Prize is $20 USD plus up to two Tiebreaker handling charges of $5 each (total $30 USD plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms). In some states, lower tiebreaker fees may apply. Any subsequent tiebreakers are free. Returned checks may be subject to electronic redeposit without further notice. Recovery fees as allowed by state law may be assessed and may be debited from your checking account. No additional fees are required. Fee discounts may be offered. International fees may be higher, depending on currency conversion rates.
3. Estimated Number of Contestants: Approximately 90,000 contestants are anticipated. 87% (78,300) are expected to correctly answer the Qualification Question and receive up to four successive Tiebreakers. We anticipate that about 15% of those entering (13,500) will return the correct solution to the Tiebreaker I, less than 1% (900) to the Tiebreaker II, and that the Tiebreaker III will determine winners. Sponsor reserves the right to determine the number of Tiebreakers, not to exceed four. The final Tiebreaker will be much more difficult. Photocopies and faxes will not be accepted for Tiebreaker and Bonus entries. If two or more winning entries are tied after the final Tiebreaker, prizes will be shared per capita by winners. Contestants may play multiple times to improve Tiebreaker scores. However, Sponsor reserves the right to limit the number of entries any individual contestant may submit. Winners will receive, in addition to their prize, double the amount of their original entry fees, including any bonus and tiebreaker fees, for each multiple winning entry submitted. One Grand Prize will be awarded, and could be shared with other contestants. Sponsor anticipates that less than 5% of entry fees will be distributed in prizes.
4. The Tiebreaker I is similar in concept to the original Money Motion X Contest Qualification Question, and it will utilize similar, slightly more challenging math skills. The Tiebreaker II will attempt to narrow the playing field to the top-scoring contestants. The Tiebreaker III (and any subsequent Tiebreaker that may be necessary) will be increasingly difficult and require greater math skills, in a much larger puzzle grid, with a difficulty level designed to determine the final winners. A correct solution at each stage will advance you to the next exciting round. Customers may request sample Tiebreakers at any stage in the competition before proceeding to the next stage.
5. Different versions of this offer may be tested and used, including fee and graphic presentations. Puzzle solutions found to be created in part or in whole by collusion, and/or solutions submitted by proxy or via fictitious identities will be disqualified. No entrants will be accepted for this contest after January 15, 2017; winners and prizes will be determined by July 15, 2017. There will be a 30-day rejudge period following the prize determination date, and winners will be paid within 60 days thereof. Entries received after January 15, 2017, will automatically be entered in a subsequent, similar contest. Scheduled Prize Pay date is October 13, 2017.
6. At three later points in the contest, you may be given up to three opportunities to compete for optional bonus cash prizes: on your first Tiebreaker, on a separate bonus mailing, and on your second Tiebreaker. These Bonus Cash Prizes will be added to the Grand Prize. Bonus Cash fees range from $10 to $45, depending on the additional bonus prize amount you may select. Maximum cost to play for the Grand Prize and all Bonus Cash Options advertised is $155 plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms. Fee discounts may apply. Payment of the bonus cash fees, and playing for bonus cash are optional, and will not affect your present opportunity to win or share a Grand Prize. Bonus Prizes are applicable only to the Grand Prize Winner. In the event of a tie for Bonus Prize Money, Bonus Cash will be divided per capita by those winners who have submitted winning bonus entries; only Bonus Participants will share in bonus prizes. In some countries including United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa, prizes and fees have been converted from US Dollars to local currency using the exchange rate calculated at the start date of the contest. Prizes may be awarded in US Dollars equivalent to the local currency prize amount advertised.
7. Liability for judging errors is limited to a complete refund of entry fees paid plus postage. If a contestant suspects a judging error, he or she must notify sponsor in writing within 30 days of the Prize determination date. No adjustments will be made after prizes have been paid. Winners are determined on the basis of correct and top-scoring answers to Tiebreakers. Most Tiebreakers are judged by computer programs; remaining Tiebreakers require manual judging. All winning Tiebreakers are hand-verified by qualified Judges who are employed by Sponsor, and who have been trained by Sponsor in computer judging programs and/or manual verification procedures. All payments to winners are lump sum cash payments. Submission of your entry constitutes acceptance of all contest rules. Decisions of the Judges are final. South Africa Residents warrant that in effecting payment of any competition participation fees, they have complied in all respects with the exchange control regulations.
8. A Winners List is available after contest prize award date by sending $1 and a self-addressed envelope to Money Motion X - Winners List, 1401 Armour Road, N. Kansas City, MO 64116 USA. All final Tiebreaker respondents will automatically be mailed a Winners List. Winners agree, without further compensation, to supply Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., with their photograph and to allow unlimited promotional use of their name and likeness.
9. The Unconditional Guarantee of Satisfaction is applicable to registered contestants in any open contest prior to being notified of an incorrect entry.
10. Questions? Send all correspondence to Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., Money Motion X, P.O. Box 219250, 1401 Armour Road, Kansas City, MO 64121-9250 USA. 4. The Tiebreaker I is similar in concept to the original Treasure Vault III Contest Qualification Question, and it will utilize similar, slightly more challenging math skills. The Tiebreaker II will attempt to narrow the playing field to the top-scoring contestants. The Tiebreaker III (and any subsequent Tiebreaker that may be necessary) will be increasingly difficult and require greater math skills, in a much larger puzzle grid, with a difficulty level designed to determine the final winners. A correct solution at each stage will advance you to the next exciting round. Customers may request sample Tiebreakers at any stage in the competition before proceeding to the next stage.
5. Different versions of this offer may be tested and used, including fee and graphic presentations. Puzzle solutions found to be created in part or in whole by collusion, and/or solutions submitted by proxy or via fictitious identities will be disqualified. No entrants will be accepted for this contest after November 15, 2016; winners and prizes will be determined by May 15, 2017. There will be a 30-day rejudge period following the prize determination date, and winners will be paid within 60 days thereof. Entries received after November 15, 2016, will automatically be entered in a subsequent, similar contest. Scheduled Prize Pay date is August 13, 2017.
6. At three later points in the contest, you may be given up to three opportunities to compete for optional bonus cash prizes: on your first Tiebreaker, on a separate bonus mailing, and on your second Tiebreaker. These Bonus Cash Prizes will be added to the Grand Prize. Bonus Cash fees range from $10 to $45, depending on the additional bonus prize amount you may select. Maximum cost to play for the Grand Prize and all Bonus Cash Options advertised is $155 plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms. Fee discounts may apply. Payment of the bonus cash fees, and playing for bonus cash are optional, and will not affect your present opportunity to win or share a Grand Prize. Bonus Prizes are applicable only to the Grand Prize Winner. In the event of a tie for Bonus Prize Money, Bonus Cash will be divided per capita by those winners who have submitted winning bonus entries; only Bonus Participants will share in bonus prizes. In some countries including United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa, prizes and fees have been converted from US Dollars to local currency using the exchange rate calculated at the start date of the contest. Prizes may be awarded in US Dollars equivalent to the local currency prize amount advertised.
7. Liability for judging errors is limited to a complete refund of entry fees paid plus postage. If a contestant suspects a judging error, he or she must notify sponsor in writing within 30 days of the Prize determination date. No adjustments will be made after prizes have been paid. Winners are determined on the basis of correct and top-scoring answers to Tiebreakers. Most Tiebreakers are judged by computer programs; remaining Tiebreakers require manual judging. All winning Tiebreakers are hand-verified by qualified Judges who are employed by Sponsor, and who have been trained by Sponsor in computer judging programs and/or manual verification procedures. All payments to winners are lump sum cash payments. Submission of your entry constitutes acceptance of all contest rules. Decisions of the Judges are final. South Africa Residents warrant that in effecting payment of any competition participation fees, they have complied in all respects with the exchange control regulations.
8. A Winners List is available after contest prize award date by sending $1 and a self-addressed envelope to Treasure Vault III - Winners List, 1401 Armour Road, N. Kansas City, MO 64116 USA. All final Tiebreaker respondents will automatically be mailed a Winners List. Winners agree, without further compensation, to supply Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., with their photograph and to allow unlimited promotional use of their name and likeness.
9. The Unconditional Guarantee of Satisfaction is applicable to registered contestants in any open contest prior to being notified of an incorrect entry.

Dear Caryn Nelson,

We want to be certain that our letters are reaching you because right now there is an important Document missing from your Treasure Vault III Account File. Of course, our Letters could have crossed in the mail but since this omission could prevent you from continuing your quest to win a large cash prize ($15,000.00 to $20,000.00!), the Prize Council has authorized this Reminder Notice for you.

Your Qualifying Round Entry was judged 100% correct, placing you in a tie with other contestants for a $15,000.00 Grand Prize – so you can understand why we are concerned that we have not yet received the enclosed Tiebreaker I Document from you.

FINAL INSTRUCTIONS

You are still Pre-Approved for $5,000.00 MORE in Award Upgrade Options which can increase the Grand Prize you are playing for to as much as $20,000.00. These are the LARGEST Cash Options that will ever be offered in the Prize Competition so I urge you to activate them now. You will maintain your Top Score Status when you correctly complete and return your Tiebreaker I Document. (This is the Document missing from your File!) Please mail that entire page without delay as this Matter is time-sensitive. You will immediately receive a Prize Status Update. Submit a correct Tiebreaker answer - and I can guarantee you will advance to the Semi-Finals!

If you are not completely satisfied with our game competition – for any reason – please send us a letter and take advantage of our liberal refund policy as described more fully in the Official Rules. No reasons or explanations are necessary. There are NO STRINGS ATTACHED and our RISK FREE GUARANTEE is valid with any of our existing contests.

OFFICIAL RULES Treasure Vault III

1. You must be 18 years or older to participate. Sponsors and their families are not eligible. Contestants and any of their family members (related by marriage or otherwise) who aggregate $20,000.00 or more (or local currency equivalent) in lifetime winnings from Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., or its affiliates, including North American Award Center, at the time prizes are determined in this contest are not eligible to win. Prizes in this contest of skill are subject to all federal, state, and local regulations and taxes. We are not responsible for lost, stolen, or delayed mail. Void where prohibited.
2. Treasure Vault III is not a sweepstakes or lottery. It is a contest of skill involving no luck or chance. This contest consists of your initial entry plus Tiebreakers, requiring contestants to successfully use math skills. The Grand Prize is $15,000.00. The maximum cost to compete for the Grand Prize is $20 USD plus up to two Tiebreaker handling charges of $5 each (total $30 USD plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms). In some states, lower tiebreaker fees may apply. Any subsequent tiebreakers are free. Returned checks may be subject to electronic redeposit without further notice. Recovery fees as allowed by state law may be assessed and may be debited from your checking account. No additional fees are required. Fee discounts may be offered. International fees may be higher, depending on currency conversion rates.
3. Estimated Number of Contestants: Approximately 48,000 contestants are anticipated. 90% (43,200) are expected to correctly answer the Qualification Question and receive up to four successive Tiebreakers. We anticipate that about 22% of those entering (10,560) will return the correct solution to the Tiebreaker I, less than 1% (480) to the Tiebreaker II, and that the Tiebreaker III will determine winners. Sponsor reserves the right to determine the number of Tiebreakers, not to exceed four. The final Tiebreaker will be much more difficult. Photocopies and faxes will not be accepted for Tiebreaker and Bonus entries. If two or more winning entries are tied after the final Tiebreaker, prizes will be shared per capita by winners. Contestants may play multiple times to improve Tiebreaker scores. However, Sponsor reserves the right to limit the number of entries any individual contestant may submit. Winners will receive, in addition to their prize, double the amount of their original entry fees, including any bonus and tiebreaker fees, for each multiple winning entry submitted. One Grand Prize will be awarded, and could be shared with other contestants. Sponsor anticipates that less than 5% of entry fees will be distributed in prizes.
4. The Tiebreaker I is similar in concept to the original Treasure Vault III Contest Qualification Question, and it will utilize similar, slightly more challenging math skills. The Tiebreaker II will attempt to narrow the playing field to the top-scoring contestants. A correct solution at each stage will advance you to the next exciting round. Customers may request sample Tiebreakers at any stage in the competition before proceeding to the next stage.
5. Different versions of this offer may be tested and used, including fee and graphic presentations. Puzzle solutions found to be created in part or in whole by collusion, and/or solutions submitted by proxy or via fictitious identities will be disqualified. No entrants will be accepted for this contest after November 15, 2016; winners and prizes will be determined by May 15, 2017. There will be a 30-day rejudge period following the prize determination date, and winners will be paid within 60 days thereof. Entries received after November 15, 2016, will automatically be entered in a subsequent, similar contest. Scheduled Prize Pay date is August 13, 2017.
6. At three later points in the contest, you may be given up to three opportunities to compete for optional bonus cash prizes: on your first Tiebreaker, on a separate bonus mailing, and on your second Tiebreaker. These Bonus Cash Prizes will be added to the Grand Prize. Bonus Cash fees range from $10 to $45, depending on the additional bonus prize amount you may select. Maximum cost to play for the Grand Prize and all Bonus Cash Options advertised is $155 plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms. Fee discounts may apply. Payment of the bonus cash fees, and playing for bonus cash are optional, and will not affect your present opportunity to win or share a Grand Prize. Bonus Prizes are applicable only to the Grand Prize Winner. In the event of a tie for Bonus Prize Money, Bonus Cash will be divided per capita by those winners who have submitted winning bonus entries; only Bonus Participants will share in bonus prizes. In some countries including United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa, prizes and fees have been converted from US Dollars to local currency using the exchange rate calculated at the start date of the contest. Prizes may be awarded in US Dollars equivalent to the local currency prize amount advertised.
7. Liability for judging errors is limited to a complete refund of entry fees paid plus postage. If a contestant suspects a judging error, he or she must notify sponsor in writing within 30 days of the Prize determination date. No adjustments will be made after prizes have been paid. Winners are determined on the basis of correct and top-scoring answers to Tiebreakers. Most Tiebreakers are judged by computer programs; remaining Tiebreakers require manual judging. All winning Tiebreakers are hand-verified by qualified Judges who are employed by Sponsor, and who have been trained by Sponsor in computer judging programs and/or manual verification procedures. All payments to winners are lump sum cash payments. Submission of your entry constitutes acceptance of all contest rules. Decisions of the Judges are final. South Africa Residents warrant that in effecting payment of any competition participation fees, they have complied in all respects with the exchange control regulations.

GUARANTEE OF SATISFACTION

Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., offers you the opportunity for thrilling financial rewards PLUS challenging fun and excitement. If you are not completely satisfied with our game competition – for any reason – please send us a letter and take advantage of our liberal refund policy as described more fully in the Official Rules. No reasons or explanations are necessary. There are NO STRINGS ATTACHED and our RISK FREE GUARANTEE is valid with any of our existing contests.

OFFICIAL RULES

Treasure Vault IV

1. You must be 18 years or older to participate. Sponsors and their families are not eligible. Contestants and any of their family members (related by marriage or otherwise) who aggregate $20,000.00 or more (or local currency equivalent) in lifetime winnings from Opportunities Unlimited Publications, Inc., or its affiliates, including North American Award Center, at the time prizes are determined in this contest are not eligible to win. Prizes in this contest of skill are subject to all federal, state, and local regulations and taxes. We are not responsible for lost, stolen, or delayed mail. Void where prohibited.
2. Treasure Vault IV is not a sweepstakes or lottery. It is a contest of skill involving no luck or chance. This contest consists of your initial entry plus Tiebreakers, requiring contestants to successfully use math skills. The Grand Prize is $15,000.00. The maximum cost to compete for the Grand Prize is $20 USD plus up to two Tiebreaker handling charges of $5 each (total $30 USD plus appropriate first class postage to return four reply forms). In some states, lower tiebreaker fees may apply. Any subsequent tiebreakers are free. Returned checks may be subject to electronic redeposit without further notice. Recovery fees as allowed by state law may be assessed and may be debited from your checking account. No additional fees are required. Fee discounts may be offered. International fees may be higher, depending on currency conversion rates.
3. Estimated Number of Contestants: Approximately 39,000 contestants are anticipated. 90% (35,100) are expected to correctly answer the Qualification Question and receive up to four successive Tiebreakers. We anticipate that about 24% of those entering (9,360) will return the correct solution to the Tiebreaker I, less than 1% (390) to the Tiebreaker II, and that the Tiebreaker III will determine winners. Sponsor reserves the right to determine the number of Tiebreakers, not to exceed four. The final Tiebreaker will be much more difficult. Photocopies and faxes will not be accepted for Tiebreaker and Bonus entries. If two or more winning entries are tied after the final Tiebreaker, prizes will be shared per capita by winners. Contestants may play multiple times to improve Tiebreaker scores. However, Sponsor reserves the right to limit the number of entries any individual contestant may submit. Winners will receive, in addition to their prize, double the amount of their original entry fees, including any bonus and tiebreaker fees, for each multiple winning entry submitted. One Grand Prize will be awarded, and could be shared with other contestants. Sponsor anticipates that less than 5% of entry fees will be distributed in prizes.
4. The Tiebreaker I is similar in concept to the original Treasure Vault IV Contest Qualification Question, and it will utilize similar, slightly more challenging math skills. The Tiebreaker II will attempt to narrow the playing field to the top-scoring contestants. The Tiebreaker III (and any subsequent Tiebreaker that may be necessary) will be increasingly difficult and require greater math skills, in a much larger puzzle grid, with a difficulty level designed to determine the final winners. A correct solution at each stage will advance you to the next exciting round. Customers may request sample Tiebreakers at any stage in the competition before proceeding to the next stage.
5. Different versions of this offer may be tested and used, including fee and graphic presentations. Puzzle solutions found to be created in part or in whole by collusion, and/or solutions submitted by proxy or via fictitious identities will be disqualified. My name is Charles W. Fox. I am Directing Officer of the AWARD NOTIFICATION COMMISSION, a large Award determinations firm located in KANSAS CITY, KS, USA.

The purpose of this letter is to notify you, officially, that a preselected WINNING I.D. number has been identified in an international Award Series (#2-15L), and by virtue of this correspondence, all you must do is provide effective entry (as instructed) to VALIDATE said opportunity to WIN if you have and return the preselected winning number the outright CASH AWARD of $2,000,000.00 Two Million Dollars.

Please Note: This is not a preliminary letter requiring further rounds, additional levels or multiple skill requirements. Failure to comply will invalidate this letter in all parts and summary, and there is no grace period. Be apprised — we are very excited and anxious to go forward as you should be at this moment — if you have and return the preselected winning number before the deadline, stipulations guarantee the entire and maximum amount of the AWARD for direct payment to you, in CASH, $2,000,000.00. This is a time-sensitive matter.

Your original ANC OFFICIAL JUDGING AND PROCESSING FORM (pg. 2) must be completed and returned in ENTIRETY. You may make a copy for your records. Status limitations exclude you if you are under 18 years of age.

By addition and on reserve to you, a Premium Offer to supplement this Award Series has been approved as a bonus option. Premium Offer authorization is irrevocably yours and shall provide: $2,500.00 gift certificate for up to 75% off WONrewards.com online merchandise and service offerings. Our shipping department has certified the preparation of this parcel directly in your name.

To initiate Premium Offer delivery, prepayment is REQUIRED and must be enclosed without exemption with return of the accompanying completed FORM in entirety (pg. 2). Payment of cash, check or postal money order is accepted for $12.99, or if you prefer, you may charge to a major credit card. If remittance is paid in the form of a check or money order, make payable to ANC.

The official structure of AWARD FUNDS for pending Winner determination is as follows: Choice of fixed, annualized 30-year annuity paying $66,666.66 in each of 30 consecutive years to total $2,000,000.00, or an alternate single payment in the lump-sum amount of $1,327,940.00. (Please see step #3 of completion instructions on the next page.)

The total amount has been safeguarded by an insured bond. Other options are not available. Please go to pg. 2 now and complete it as requested. Charles Jacobs, our Senior Auditor, has confirmed that the Award Funds are represented in the amount so stated.

We must inspect your pg. 2 document thoroughly to eliminate any possible malfeasance and finalize the judging process.

Addressed To: CARYN NELSON

This letter has been drafted under the full authority of my office as Director of Awards for delivery to you by sealed first-class mail.

We are contacting you directly from the international headquarters of the INTERNATIONAL AWARD SERVICES (IAS), and I wish to begin with some wonderful news: It is an honor to corroborate from our Judging Div. that a large Award for CASH FUNDS, if you have and return the preselected winning number, not to exceed the Grand Prize of $2,000,000.00 nor be less than $1,327,940.00, could be legally transferred and upon receiving the winning entry; (Form 508002-A147) under the condition that there is no delinquency per the formal deadline.

Please make sure that I.D. #17584858-502377/298706566 conspicuously appears above or near your name on both pages 1 and 2 of this documentation as provided to you.

IMPORTANT: The preselected winning number may not be modified, defaced, marked-on or corrupted in any way; official rules, printed on a separate slip enclosed, dictate if you have received and return the preselected winning number in unaltered integrity and meet the deadline...

CARYN NELSON, YOU ARE THE AWARD WINNER OF $2,000,000.00 Two Million Dollars!

This is not a misprint. The verified Winner option for receipt of the Award Funds are insured and must lawfully be paid as follows:

-- OPTION 1: A TOTAL PAYMENT OF $2,000,000.00 VIA A 30-YEAR STRUCTURED ANNUITY DISPERSING $66,666.66 PER YEAR FOR THIRTY CONSECUTIVE YEARS.

-- OPTION 2: A TOTAL PAYMENT OF $1,327,940.00 PAYABLE IN A SINGLE, LUMP-SUM ALLOCATION.

At this time, please understand you have been officially informed through a signed document.
There is a 7 day reply requested deadline window extended to you for completion and return of the RECIPIENT PROCESSING FORM on page 2. Further notices or alternate letters of contact are not required by the IAS organization.

A Premium Offer has also been consigned for your reserved purchase acquisition as an additional supplement by our public relations department. Said Premium Offer: $2,500.00 gift certificate for up to 75% off WONrewards.com online merchandise and service offerings.

Please note that an acquisition fee of $12.99 must be prepaid without exception to satisfy this transaction. If electing to purchase the Premium Offer, a delivery fee may be remitted by cash funds, or by your preference of check, money order (payable to: IAS) or credit card. If using a credit card, please make sure to include your credit card number and expiration date (month and year).

Finally, all instructions are furnished on the RECIPIENT PROCESSING FORM on page 2. IAS judges must inspect and make a personal record of this form at our U.S. headquarters in KANSAS CITY, KS. Obviously, the total AWARD FUNDS, at $2,000,000.00 Two Million Dollars, are quite large. We cannot wait to see if you have the preselected winning number!
